

Dog shot with arrow recovering with owners in Ohio

Pooch was likely shot two days before being found

4:06 PM, Nov. 11, 2011 |

Comments

Mindy Daugherty, 25, holds her dogs Hershey, left, and Brownie at her home in Brunswick Hills, Ohio. Hershey was discovered on Nov. 6 in Valley City, about 15 miles from the home he had run away from 17 days earlier. The 15-year-old German shepherd-Labrador retriever mix had an arrow poked through both sides of his chest. The local Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals says the arrow was probably in place for at least two days. The arrow was removed at a veterinary hospital in Akron. / ASSOCIATED PRESS

Written by Associated Press

BRUNSWICK HILLS, OHIO — A dog found shot in the chest with an arrow is weak but recovering with his owners in

OH - Dog shot with arrow recovering with owners northeast Ohio.

The Akron Beacon Journal reports that Hershey was discovered on Nov. 6 in Valley City, about 15 miles from the home he had run away from 17 days earlier. The 15-year-old German shepherd-Labrador retriever mix had an arrow poked through both sides of his chest.

The local Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals says the arrow was probably in place for at least two days.

The arrow was removed at a veterinary hospital in Akron. On Nov. 9, the dog was home with Deanne Pennell and her family in Brunswick Hills.

Pennell says if caught, the person who injured the dog should be made to volunteer at the SPCA

<http://www.app.com/article/20111111/NJLIFE06/311100118/Dog-found-arrow-piercing-chest>